

For Women Who Wine

An Evening of Wine Tastings, Conversation and Art

Featuring Dreadnought Wines

Providing limited production wines to Pittsburgh's premiere restaurants, catering companies and the general public, Dreadnought continues its mission of educating the public, realizing that an informed wine consumer is their best customer. Owner Gonze teaches classes, delivers seminars and performs tastings throughout the Pittsburgh area and beyond. Continually visiting new wineries, Dreadnought's list includes French, Argentinian, Italian, Australian and American Wines that are appreciated by wine connoisseurs both locally and throughout the United States.

Please join Mary Grace and Rosalind to learn
The what's and why's of wine.
